
Bars: 99% binomial intervals under independent-trial assumption.
Combined arm has a separate selected timing association; see the report. These intervals do not certify isolation.